

Construction survey services at DOWL HKM extend from locating property boundaries and collecting site data to laying out project elements for construction. These services combined with construction administration by DOWL HKM close the gap between project design and final record drawings. Pre-bid plan reviews lend confidence that designs are high quality and practical. Inspection, testing, and administrative services maintain quality and cost control from project startup through closeout. Construction quality measurements and record drawing verification bring projects full circle.

CONSTRUCTION ADMINISTRATION

SERVICES PROVIDED:

- Surveying
- Plan Review
- Specification Review
- Bid Letting
- Contract Management
- Work Observation
- Construction Testing
- Change Order Processing
- Payment Processing
- Project Closeout

