

DOWL HKM

BUILDING COMMUNITY THROUGH BETTER ENGINEERING

STORM DRAINAGE DESIGN AND ANALYSIS

DOWL HKM provides complete storm drainage analysis, design, and construction services from drainage planning, to site specific designs. The firm's qualified geotechnical engineers and hydraulic/hydrologic engineers are experienced in field investigations and design techniques. DOWL HKM is experienced in all aspects of developing a successful project from planning through construction. The firm has completed numerous storm drainage projects in Montana and Wyoming.

SERVICES PROVIDED:

- Stormwater Management Manual Development
- Field Investigations
- Basin/Watershed Inventory and GIS Mapping
- Precipitation Studies and Frequency Analysis
- Hydraulic Analysis
- Retention/Detention Pond Sizing
- Water Quality Analysis for NPDES Compliance
- Bioengineering
- Erosion Control Plans
- Monitoring Systems
- Materials Testing
- Construction Administration
- Construction Inspection
- Expert Witness Testimony
- Permitting

